Miss Wheeler's Wedding.

"Town and Country," says concerning Miss Wheeler's wedding, scheduled for this week, that "during the midsummer this week, that "during the midsummer there is schom a wedding celebrated in New York se interesting as that to take place on July 27th in St. Thomas's Church, when Miss Julia Knox Hull Wheeler, daughter of General Joseph Wheeler, will be married to Mr. William Julius Harris. Last summer, on August 4th, Mr. and Mrs. Charles El Bayne, who are now occupying their honie at Fort Hamilton, had a year partity "cheery title wedding." cupying their home at Fort Hamilton, had a very pretty, cheery little wedding in Grace Church chantry, the happy, good humor of the guests being equal to and rather proving indifference to the heat of the day. And as New York is often visited by southerners during July and August and was once a summer resor in their estimation, there will be a great deal of cordiality and southern sympathy and good will at this wedding."

Lawn Party.

Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, President of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, makes the following report of the lawn party Friday evening at the Soldiers' Home. She says:

"The lawn party given by the Entertainment Committee of the Richmond Chapter, U. D. C., at Soldiers' Home on the anniversary of the hattle of Manassas, was most enjoyable. The entertainment, through the courtesy of the Times-Dispatch, had been well advertised, but not so many were present as had been hoped. It was believed that a sufficient sum would be received from the sale of refreshments to furnish the basis of another entertainment, but this belief did not materialize.

"The veterans, however, enloyed the treat, for it made them feel that, even in the hurry and bustle of everyday life, they were remembered.

"Few people realize the monotony of existence for the veterans at the Home. They need recreation of some kind. A commodious new amusement hall, equipped for every kind of entertainment, appeals mutely to the musical and dramatic talent of Richmond, and is a constant reminder to all Confederate men and women of the duty owed to veterans who fought in the Southern army, and who, in the decline of their lives, have little to brighten and relieve the round of duil days as they pass."

"It is carnestly hoped thaf a regular series of entertainments can be arranged for next autumn and winter.

"For the success of the lawn party, to Mrs. Dabney Carr, chalman of the entertainment committee, special thanks are due.

"The ladies who were present were Miss M. G. Baushman, president of Jumor Cable Company. Mr. Corley will attend the branch managers' meeting of the Cable Company in Chicago, which takes place this week. Afterward he will make a this week. Company in chicago, which takes have this week.
